Pfeiffer leaves Gateway license intact

by Amy Zurawski and Mary Holland

Charleston Mayor Clancy Pfeiffer said Sunday night that he does not plan to suspend Gateway Liquor's liquor license, despite the belief of one resident that the store needs "to be taught a lesson" for selling alcohol to minors.

Pfeiffer said he reached his decision "based on a certain format" he has set-up to deal with liquor violations. Under the format, an employee selling liquor to a minor is fined $250 for the first offense, $500 for the second offense and the store involved is closed for a week after the third offense, he said.

The complaint against Gateway was initiated by a petition signed by six residents requesting a hearing on the matter.

One of the signers, Charleston landlord Ron Tarvin, who originally circulated the petition, could not be reached for comment Sunday night.

At a hearing Thursday regarding the possible suspension of Gateway's license, Pfeiffer delayed his decision for three days.

Tarvin, in his complaint to Pfeiffer, said Jonathan L. White, an employee of Gateway, had been found guilty twice for selling alcohol to a person under the age of 21. Selling liquor to minors violates state law and a city ordinance.

Tarvin said he believes the owner of Gateway, rather than the employee, should be punished for selling alcohol to minors. Gateway is owned by Jerry Nikitas.

However, Pfeiffer said that because the violation is the store's first offense, it will not be closed.

"I don't think Mr. Tarvin was aware of the format involved in liquor violations," Pfeiffer said. "If he had checked with me he would have known."

Although White has been convicted twice for selling to minors, Pfeiffer said the first offense did not occur at Gateway so it is not counted as a violation by the store.

White's first conviction for selling liquor to minors occurred while he was working at Bob's Package Liquor, another store owned by Nikitas, Pfeiffer said.

Pfeiffer said White was convicted on Aug. 26 and fined the maximum fine of $500 for his second offense. For the first offense, Pfeiffer said he believes White was fined $250.

He added that action concerning the Gateway matter was taken long before Tarvin asked for a hearing. "I have not done anything as a result of Mr. Tarvin's worries or suggestions," he said.

The owner of Gateway, Jerry Nikitas, did not attend Thursday's hearing. However, he said Sunday that employers cannot always control the actions of their employees.

"No employer can supervise every minute of an employee's business," he said. "I can't be at every store at every minute to see what's going on."

Nikitas said he did not attend Thursday's hearing "because I wasn't invited."

"I asked Pfeiffer if my attendance was mandatory and he said 'no.' Since I didn't receive a formal invitation, I didn't go," Nikitas said.

Tarvin said after the hearing Thursday that he was surprised a Gateway representative was not present at the hearing.

"White was there, but he didn't say (see PFEIFFER, page 7)

Eastern awarded coal grant

by Matt Glover

The U.S. Department of Energy recently awarded Eastern $1,532,814 toward the cost of the proposed coal conversion project.

George Miller, vice president for administration and finance, said the conversion of Eastern's energy facility from natural gas to coal will be funded in part by the department's Institutional Conservation Program.

"We believe significant savings in energy costs will be realized in this new facility," he said.

Miller said he expects the state to match the grant for a total sum of $3,065,628.

In addition to those funds, he said $4,983,000 is included in a recent state Capital Development appropriations bill for the coal conversion project.

When the governor releases the funds from that bill, the total created for the conversion project will be $8,048,628, Miller added.

However, Miller said he had "been in contact with the (Illinois) Capital Development Board in regards to the project and asked for clarification of the project scope and budget as well as all funding sources," he added.

"We have also asked that it include a number of environmental provisions since the plant is close to the campus and the community," Miller said. He added one of those provisions should be a scrubber to remove sulfur emissions from the air.

The "Capital Development Board indicates it is economically feasible for our facility, he said."

"With the addition of a scrubber, we would not have to be as concerned with burning Illinois coal with its high sulfur content," Miller said.

"I expect that the project at Eastern, if it comes off, will serve as a model for other projects," Miller said. He added that Eastern will be the first state school to have a facility that is protective of the environment.

Enrollment set

Spring semester pre-enrollment for currently-enrolled Eastern students will begin Monday and continue through Nov. 11.

David Sardella, assistant director of registration, said students may obtain pre-enrollment materials by presenting a valid ID card in the registration operations room located in south basement of McAfee Gym.

Students should report for pre-enrollment according to the time designated by the last digit of their social security number, he said.

Students with social security numbers ending in digits five through nine may pick up their materials after 8:30 a.m. Monday. Students with a last digit of 0-4 may obtain their materials after 8:30 a.m. Tuesday. The door closes at 4 p.m., he added.

Materials will also be available until Nov. 11 at 3:30 p.m., Sardella said.

'The time has come' as Watt bows out

WASHINGTON (AP)—Interior Secretary James Watt resigned Sunday ending three weeks of uproar over his latest verbal gaffe and a stormy 2½-year career as manager of the nation's land and natural resources.

President Reagan reluctantly accepted the resignation and said Watt would remain on the job until a successor is chosen.

Watt made the announcement in a cow pasture at a ranch where he has been vacationing near Santa Barbara, Calif., telling reporters "the time has come" to step down.

Reagan accepted the resignation with reluctance and said Watt had done "an outstanding job as a member of my Cabinet and his stewardship of the natural resources of the nation."

Reagan said Watt "has initiated a careful balance between the needs of the people and the importance of protecting the environment. His dedication to public service and his accomplishments as secretary of the interior will long be remembered."

Watt said he resigned because "our usefulness...has come to an end."

There was no immediate word on Watt's successor. But White House aids have said for the past several days that candidates included former Sen. Clifford Hansen, R-Wyoming; J.J. Simmons, a black Democrat who works at the Interior Department; and Energy Secretary Donald Hodel, a former Interior Department official.

The controversy was touched off Sept. 21 when Watt told a Chamber of Commerce breakfast that an Interior Department advisory committee contained "a black...a woman, two Jews and a cripple."

19 killed, 40 injured in Rangoon

RANGOON, Burma—A Terrorist bomb apparently meant for South Korean President Chun Doo-hwan ripped through a memorial site Sunday, killing four of his Cabinet Ministers, the ambassador to Burma and several top aids.

The government of Burma and South Korea said 16 South Koreans and three Burmese journalists were killed by the explosion at the Martyr's Mausoleum in Rangoon minutes before Chun arrived for the ceremony.

They say at least forty people were wounded, including two Burmese Cabinet ministers and 15 high-ranking South Koreans.

Missile demonstrations to begin

LONDON—Hundreds of thousands of anti-nuclear demonstrators are expected on the streets of Western Europe in the next few weeks as NATO moves towards stationing new American missiles in Europe.

The "Hot Autumn" protests come as nervous West European governments watch for a U.S.-Soviet missile agreement.

Helicopter hit, two Marines shot

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Two U.S. Marines were slightly wounded and a U.S. Helicopter was hit by small arms fire Sunday at the Marine encampment near Beirut International Airport.

Some of the American units were put on alert as sporadic exchanges of fire between Shiite Moslem militiamen and the Lebanese army continued in nearby neighborhoods despite the cease-fire in Lebanon's civil war.

U.S. Middle East envoy Robert C. McFarlane met in Damascus with Syria's foreign minister in an effort to strengthen the cease-fire.

Maj. Robert Jordan, a Marine spokesman, said one soldier was hit in the heel Saturday night by a stray round near the main entrance to the Marines' airport encampment.

The other American was shot in the shoulder Sunday morning at the Marine position near the Lebanese Scientific University east of the airport, he said.

Jordan described the shooting as a possible effort to "goad the Marines into action." He said the Marines did not shoot back in either incident.

Also Sunday morning, a U.S. helicopter parked near the Marine camp was struck by small-arms fire, but there were no injuries, Jordan said.

Pacific radar coverage updated

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. civilian and military agencies say they are working to improve the radar and radio coverage of the North Pacific air routes from which Korean Air Lines Flight 007 made its final fatal intrusion into Soviet airspace.

For the most part the improvements were in the works long before a missile from a Soviet interceptor sent the Boeing 747 jetliner and its 269 passengers and crew crashing into the Sea of Japan on Sept. 1. Some are years from becoming reality.

One precautionary step taken after the incident lasted only briefly.

The Federal Aviation Administration initially closed "R-20," the air corridor from which the plane strayed. But it reopened the route in late September after its safety was reassessed and navigational aids were checked.

1,000 expected for open house

by Mike Samuels

Campus tours and meetings on various topics dealing with college life will highlight Eastern's annual open house Monday.

Glenn Williams, vice president of student affairs, said the open house is for high school and junior college students considering Eastern as a possible college choice. He added that they are expecting about 1,000 students to attend.

Williams said Eastern has an open house every year "to keep in contact with high school students and to let them know what Eastern has to offer."

"We want to make sure that the students are exposed to certain parts and information of the campus," Williams said. "We want to make sure that the students get a full view of the campus."

The day's events begins with an opening session at which Eastern's president and vice president for student affairs greet the prospective students, Williams said.

Department staff members from admissions, housing, financial aids, and advisements will present information concerning those areas from 9:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. in Dvorak Hall.

Residence hall tours will be conducted from noon to 1 p.m. with lunch in the halls optional for the students, Williams noted.

He added that the tours, given by Eastern students, serve the purpose of providing the visitors with a taste of residence hall living and give them the chance to relate to those students conducting the tours.

BOG holds off on naming three finalists

by Sheila Billerbeck

Because the Board of Governors search committee has not contacted all candidates, the names of the three finalists for Eastern's presidential position will not be released until Monday.

Although BOG Executive Director Donald Walters, adviser to the board committee, was not available for comment, Walter's executive assistant Pam Meyer said, "The board is still in the process of confirming invitations to the Oct. 15 meeting."

The board committee met Oct. 5 by phone conference to choose three finalists from a list of five candidates. The five candidates include Walter Jones, vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of Maryland-

Baltimore County; Thomas Porter, executive officer for academic affairs at Connecticut State University; Stanley Rives, provost and vice president for academic affairs at Eastern; Donald Schwartz, chancellor at the University of Colorado-Colorado Springs; and Paul Weller, vice president for academic affairs at California State University-Pomona.

The final three candidates will be invited to meet with the BOG Oct. 15 at the O'Hare Hilton in Chicago.

Reconsider new tailgate regulations

Editorial

Eastern administrators hastily implemented illogical restrictions and regulations pertaining to tailgate parties at Eastern football games.

Too many unanswered questions pertaining to the new regulations, effective Oct. 15 when Eastern plays Northern Iowa, indicate that the administration needs to reconsider their action.

The modifications to the original tailgate policy, which was established in 1980, state all tailgating in the "student designated area" will be allowed from 10:30 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. or 15 minutes prior to the start of the football game. Also, kegs of beer will no longer be permitted in the student tailgate area.

To enforce these new regulations, Glenn Williams, vice president for student affairs, said student security marshals will be hired and "appropriate signs will be erected to ensure students are aware of the new rules."

The official statement informing students of the sudden changes opened a bag full of questions about the regulations.

- How can officials be sure attendance has declined because of tailgating? The administration's main reason for changing the tailgate policy is to increase attendance at football games. But it is illogical to assume that more people will enter O'Brien Stadium if tailgating is stopped 15 minutes before game time.

The decision to attend a Panther football game is a preconceived one, initiated by an interest to see the team in action. It is a lack of interest that keep students from attending, not tailgaters.

It might be possible that some students misuse the tailgate privilege, utilizing the opportunity to party with friends. But restricting tailgate hours will not prompt those students to attend the game.

- Where is the "designated student tailgate area"? Since tailgating has been allowed, a separate student section has not been labeled and marked off. And if the administration is attempting to increase attendance, why don't the restrictions apply to all tailgaters and not just students?

- How will the administration enforce such restrictions? Putting students in charge of policing student tailgaters is like putting mice in charge of the cheese. And where will the money come from to pay student marshals?

Answers to these questions are needed before this new policy is actually enforced at the next home football game.

If tailgating caused problems like property damage and out-of-control partying, then similar restrictions might be justified. But such problems have not existed. And instituting such regulations to increase attendance is illogical and should be reconsidered.

Sox season made summer sweeter for South Siders

All right all you Cubs and Cards fans, you can quit chuckling now. You've had your revenge.

You've enjoyed the sweetness of watching us shake our heads in disgust and disappointment after watching our South Side heroes take a slug at the gold—only to strike out.

OK, so they blew it. No excuses. And being a native-born South-Sider, I'm upset just like almost everyone else in my neighborhood back home.

Those of us on the South Side were ready for a trip to the series. Our team was one we could finally show off to the world. We donned our Sox caps and Winning Ugly T-shirts and buttons and smiled proudly as we walked down the block.

At our South Side schools, kids participated in Sox Days. They wore their Sox jerseys, jackets and hats. They brought their Ron Kittle autographed bats and HAR-OLD Baines signature baseballs for show and tell. They figured out batting averages in math class and learned how to spell all the players' names in spelling class.

A dream was about to become reality on the South Side where the "Na na na nah, hey, hey, hey, goodbye!" chant had originated at our high school football games.

The miracle on 35th Street had already occurred with the capturing of the first American League West title in 24 years. We thought anything was possible.

But then we woke up. Our dream was injured. We weren't the greatest team in the league.

Winning-Ugly members Carlton Fisk, the Bull, Tom Paciorek and the rest just couldn't weather the pitching of Storm Davis and Mike Boddicker. And rookie Ron Kittle took the loss on the knee. Jerry Dybzinski answered to his baserunning mistakes, which probably cost the team one more chance at the title, like a man.

He told Chicago Tribune reporters after Saturday's heartbreaker, "Sometimes in this game you make a mistake and it gets magnified. I know I can run the bases; I've been running them all my life...All I can do, I guess, is face it like a man and try to get some growth out of it."

The Dybber's words are ones the Sox, the South-Siders and all their fans should live by.

We all know the South-Side Hit Men can do better than three runs in four games. They did better all summer long. So instead of lingering on the bitterness of the four playoff games, we fans should thank the 1983 Chicago White Sox for giving us the wondrous thrill of an American League West championship and a chance to dream.

So, you Cubs and Cards fans can chuckle all you want because the South Siders' dream is injured—not dead.

Year after year, we fans in Chicago have learned one lesson over and over again—there's always next year.

Your turn

Plagiarism addressed

Editor:

This is a reply to Mr. Broderick's column Monday. It would figure that the paper would try to cover up the inadequacies of the so-called author of "rat's tales." Remember when it was named "Kegar" last year? I do, because he ripped off Doonesbury then also. It took place in a football huddle, and not only was the dialogue stolen, but so were the precise actions. I remember it well because I wrote a letter on it. But of course, The Daily Eastern News will stand behind the staff, plagiarism and all. Let's face it, he stole it.

With your reference to Uncle Duke and Hunter S. Thompson—haven't you ever heard of parody? Parody is done all the time, and that's what Mr. Trudeau has done. In "Fear and Loathing," the bats were only mentioned on the first page while Thompson was stoned off of every drug possible. Go back and check.

I realize that there are really no new jokes, but if he is going to use the gags of others, he could at least use a little more variation on them. If this guy must continue to use Doonesbury, he should change the name of his strip. How about "Doonesbury's rat tales?" At least that way we're not being insulted that much.

Don't kill a good thing

Editor:

To the students of EIU:

The issue of parties on this campus has become a great concern to many individuals. Many students feel their rights have been violated. Compared to other universities, Eastern students have it pretty good.

Unlike other universities, residents are notified about complaints in the form of a warning. Many students have abused this privilege. Because of these few students we may not have this privilege much longer.

Solution: Look into Charleston's party policy and learn how to party safely and legally. Let's not mess up a good thing.

Anti-rape group airs fears

by Kim Weiss

Student awareness about the problem of rape at Eastern's campus was the primary topic of discussion at the first meeting of a new anti-rape group Thursday.

The meeting, coordinated by Gretchen Saries, a junior political science major, allowed people to express their fears concerning rape. Suggestions regarding the prevention of rape were also offered.

Bonnie Buckley, coordinator of Coles County Women Against Rape and speaker at the meeting, said there are known instances of women being attack by an escort home from a party.

Men might offer to walk or drive an acquaintance home and "play on her fears" of walking home alone, Buckley said.

However, Buckley pointed out that not everyone is a rapist. "It's a few men raping a lot of people," she said.

In other business, the group discussed a free self-defense class open to members of CCWAR and students interested in becoming a member of the group, Buckley said. The class, sponsored by CCWAR, is scheduled for Oct. 11.

Saries said the anti-rape group will be working with other anti-rape organizations such as CCWAR.

Mother Nature fooling with us

by Jack Carver

One day it's warm and sunny, the next it's cool and wet. Just what is going on with the weather these days?

Local weather consultant Dalias Price said Wednesday Charleston's recent, rapid weather changes are not unusual.

Price said the slow movement of air masses have caused the recent shifts in temperatures in the Charleston area.

Price noted that a cold front has originated from the Northern Great Plains, following our last cold front from Canada.

Though the new front contains no extremely cold temperatures, its slow movement has caused the recent shifts in temperatures, Price added.

Once the front arrives, its distance to the Earth's surface will determine how warm or cool temperatures will be here, he added.

Because it is a cool front, Price said temperatures will drop if the front moves toward the Earth's surface. However, if the front moves away from the Earth's surface, temperatures will rise.

Price said fronts constantly move up and down, causing temperatures to change. When temperatures change, then remain stable for a period of time, the front is remaining either up or down for a number of days.

Price predicted that the Charleston community can expect weather conditions to continue to vary for the remainder of the fall.

JOHN MORRELL DIDN'T BECOME A TRAINEE AFTER COLLEGE. HE BECAME A MANAGER.

"As Executive Officer of the Army's Defense Language Institute at Monterey, California, I'm responsible for the housing, feeding and well-being of 500 students. And that's no small task. I manage an annual food budget of over a million and a half dollars. And I'm accountable for five million dollars worth of property.

"On top of managing money, I also supervise a staff of 24 people. And each one has unique problems that I have to handle on a daily basis. You better believe the leadership and management training I received in Army ROTC is paying off."

There are other good reasons for taking ROTC, too. Like scholarship opportunities. And financial assistance — up to $1,000 a year for anything," he said. "It seems to me that if they aren't there to testify for themselves, they don't care about having their license suspended."

Tarvin has his "facts in error," Nikitas said. Although Tarvin has said Gateway switched White from one business to another after his first conviction "to escape responsibility," Nikitas said employees normally work at more than one store at a time.

White was "permanently suspended" after his second conviction, Nikitas said. "I believe everyone's entitled to one mistake as long as it's an honest one," Nikitas said. "After the second incident, he was suspended that evening."

Margaret Spear, Charleston citizen, testified at the hearing that her 15-year-old daughter had purchased liquor at Gateway without being carded.

"It was on a dare that she tried to purchase liquor one night and left the arcade, went to Gateway and bought liquor without being carded," Spear said.

She added that she would personally feel "honored" if she could be carded in the liquor stores. "We need to have everyone carded on all occasions," Spear said.

Spear recommended that liquor be sold on campus to see problems created by alcohol more easily controlled.

Fans react to Chicago defeat

CHICAGO (AP)—Loving a winner may be the "trendy" thing to do, but living with a loser is the "fate" of this city.

That's how some Chicagoans described their feelings Saturday at the end of a long summer party. Their White Sox had failed to win the American League pennant after losing three straight games to the Orioles of Baltimore.

"It's too bad. You wished it could have gone on longer," a Comiskey Park vendor said after a 3-0 defeat ended the White Sox season. "What I mean is, it was like a wedding or something for the whole city. You didn't even have to be a fan to enjoy it."

Karen Walsh, 24, is not a fan. Or at least she wasn't until Chicago was well on its way to winning the West Division. Being a White Sox fan, she said, "is a trendy thing to do" - and worth the ride on the emotional roller-coaster.

"We're sad, but at the same time, we experienced this, and it was fun," she said after final toast at a bar near the stadium. "If you're a fan, you're a fan. And you have a good time. If your team doesn't win, so what?"

"Our fate is to lose, but I kind of like that," he said after attending Saturday's game. "It's traditional. It's as it should be... This is our fate and we should accept it with grace and humor."

Like Elizabeth Neven a faithful fan at 92 who vividly recalls the glory of the 1917 White Sox, the last Chicago team to win the World Series.

"Oh, it breaks my heart," she said after Saturday's loss. "But they gave it a run. A good run. And they gave us a summer full of fun. Didn't they though?"

But some Chicago fans apparently are running out of grace and humor. They complain that not since 1959 has a Chicago team even made it to the World Series. And their frustrations showed.

ing kickoff and played ball-control offense as the time eventually ran out.

"We have all been in the situation that you just have to do something," Staple said. "We knew we had to keep the ball away from their offense."

"I think that gave us the extra incentive to make the needed block or get the extra yard," Staple added.

Staple was instrumental in Eastern's final time-consuming drive, as the Panther back kept the drive alive with runs of 11 and 14 yards in crucial situations.

Although Staple sustained a ankle injury during Saturday's contest, he said the injury will not affect him next week against the University of Northern Iowa.

"I sprained my ankle, but it is not too bad," Staple said. "I'll be ready to go Saturday."

Denny to start for Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— The Philadelphia Phillies, winners of the National League pennant on the strength of the hitting of Gary Matthews and the pitching of Steve Carlton in the NL Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers, will start John Denny in the first game of the World Series Tuesday night against the Baltimore Orioles.

The Phillies clinched the best-of-five series Saturday night with a 7-2 victory over the Dodgers, as Matthews, named the most valuable player in the playoffs, whacked a three-run homer in the first inning, and Carlton won his second game, with relief help from Ron Reed and Al Holland.

After naming the right-handed Denny, who was 19-6 during the regular season, as his opening-game pitcher in the World Series that opens in Philadelphia, Phillies' manager Paul Owens indicated he would use Charlie Hudson in Game 2 Wednesday night. Owens said he was concerned about Carlton, who worked six innings against the Dodgers Saturday night before leaving with back spasms.

"Carlton really gutted it out the last two innings," Owens said. "Right now I'd say Hudson for Wednesday and Carlton for Friday in Game 3 at Baltimore. But that could change."

Carlton was troubled by a back injury late in the regular season and visited a chiropractor for treatments.

Owens said that Baltimore, winner of the American League pennant over the Chicago White Sox, also in four games, had a lot of similarities to the Phillies.

Experience to key Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP)—Ken Singleton, the Baltimore Orioles' designated hitter, called it the "I-95 Series."

"You can bet there'll be a lot of traffic up and down that highway," he said.

Interstate 95 is the artery that connects Baltimore and Philadelphia, two cities 110 miles apart in distance, 180 degrees apart in baseball partisanship.

The teams from those two cities are the combatants in this year's World Series, which begins here Tuesday night.

The Orioles, baseball's winningest team over the past 15 years reached the Series by winning the American League East Division title, then defeating AL West champion Chicago in four games in the AL Championship Series. The Orioles eliminated the White Sox in four games with a series-clinching 3-0, 10-inning victory Saturday in Chicago.

The Orioles last were in the World Series in 1979, losing in seven games to the Pittsburgh Pirates. They are experienced, with 13 players from that team.

Panthers win as Staple runs past Zips 10-7

by Kirby Flowers

AKRON—Kevin Staple sparked Eastern's football team to a 10-7 victory over Akron University Saturday at the Rubber Bowl.

Staple said, "I really didn't think I was going to run the ball that much. But we were able to run well at their strengths, so we did."

"The offensive line really executed well," Staple added. "The offense is getting together now after we have had a chance to get used to the new offense."

Staple rushed 34 times for 147 yards and obtained the only Panther touchdown. The touchdown brought Eastern, 5-1, to its fourth-straight victory, while dropping Akron's record to 3-3.

"It was just an overall effort," Staple said. "We controlled the ball when we really needed to—I guess it all goes back to execution."

In addition to Staple's efforts, Eastern linebacker Reggie Taylor turned a season-high 14 total tackles. He had three unassisted tackles and 11 assists.

Eastern opened the scoring in the first quarter. Following an interception by Dan Fallon at Akron's 39-yard line, the Panthers returned the ball to the 20-yard line.

Rafferty hit Nixon for four yards on the next play. Nixon got the call again and took the ball to the 13-yard line on a sweep. Enter Staple.

Staple took the ball to the 3-yard line on a 10-yard burst, then to the 1-yard line. However, Staple was stopped for a loss of three yards on the next play, but finally got into the end zone on his fourth-straight carry.

Staple's touchdown, along with Henry Castellanos' extra-point kick put Eastern on top 7-0 at the 4:07 mark of the first quarter.

"We got the lead and sat on it," Staple said. "I think we could have scored more, but a win is a win."

After the Staple score, neither team could get anything going offensively because both defenses tightened up. Consequently, Eastern took a 7-0 advantage into the locker room at intermission.

The second half featured action similar to that of the first, but the Panthers did manage to put together the game-winning drive early in the second quarter.

Following a pair of Akron punts, Eastern's offense got on track. The Panthers marched 53 yards to Akron's 8-yard line before the drive was stalled.

As a result, Eastern settled for a 25-yard Castellanos field goal to put the Panthers ahead 10-0 with 35 seconds remaining in the third quarter.

The winning drive, a 25-yard Castellanos boot, consumed 7:20 and gave the Panthers a 10-point lead going into the final quarter.

However, running back James Black and Akron did not give up and the Zips put together their first scoring drive of the day in the fourth quarter.

After a Panther punt, Akron offense began to click as the Zips went from their own 29-yard line to Eastern's end zone to cut the lead to 10-7 with 5:40 left to play.

The Zips drive was sparked by runs of 14 and 23 by Black. Black rushed for 120 yards on 24 carries against a tough Panther defense.

Despite the Zip comeback, Eastern took the ensuing possession. (See PANTHERS, page 10)

Spikers bid for fourth tournament title falls short at Windy City meet

by Kathy Leahy

CHICAGO—Eastern's volleyball team fell short Saturday in the bid to capture a fourth tournament title of the season.

The Panthers lost to the University of Cincinnati in the semi-final round of the Windy City Invitational to end Eastern's hopes of four tournament championships.

Eastern, 17-6, was eliminated by the Lady Bearcats 16-14, 15-7, 11-15, 9-15 and 10-15 and settled for a top-four finish in the eight-team tournament.

Eastern head coach Betty Ralston said the Panther loss was caused by a momentum change in the third and fourth games of the match.

"There was a momentum change. We let them get ahead in both those games," Ralston said. "But we did a good job of coming back to keep them from blowing us out."

The Panthers struggled in the first game of the match but prevailed over the Lady Bearcats 16-14. Eastern had little difficulty handling Cincinnati in the second game and won 15-7.

However, the third game proved to be the turning point of the match. The Panthers fell behind early to 2-10 and rallied back to pull within 11-13. But efforts fell short and Cincinnati won 15-11.

After losing the fourth game 7-15, Eastern regrouped and played to a 10-10 tie in the fifth game. However, the Panthers were called for five consecutive ball-handling errors and Cincinnati took the match with a 15-10 victory.

"I really felt the momentum had turned back our way," Ralston said. "I think we would have won the match but the calls at the end stopped us cold."

The Panthers were lead by seniors Stacy Cook and Kathy Briggs. Cook led the team in service aces with six, while Briggs notched five service aces.

Eastern advanced to the semi-final round by defeating host

University of Illinois-Chicago in three straight games, 15-9, 15-13 and 16-14.

The Panthers were led by senior Bonnie Fisk who registered seven of Eastern's 13 service aces. In addition, Eastern boasted a team kill percentage of 23.6.

Eastern's other tournament loss came at the hands of conference foe Drake University. The Panthers fell to the Bulldogs in three-straight games 15-17, 13-15 and 3-15.

"It was the worst match of the season," Ralston said. "We just didn't seem to have our heads in the game and nothing went right."

Eastern was plagued by reception errors throughout weekend play, with nine of them coming against Drake.

The Panthers registered a 11.4 team kill percentage against the Bulldogs during one of their poorest performances this season, Ralston noted.

ELU 4022-001 CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES IN THE HEALTH CARE INDUSTRIES
Mr. Dennis Aten (PED)

Discussion of controversial issues centered in the health care industries which affect many aspects of life in American society. Professionals from various segments of the health care industry will participate.

ELU 4022-002 SPACESHIP EARTH--THE PRESENT STATE Dr. Alan Baharlou (GEL)

A discussion of five interconnected major trends in global concern accelerating industrialization, rapid population growth, rapid use of arable land, depletion of non-renewable resources, and a deteriorating environment.

ELU 4022-003 THE POLITICS OF HUMAN RIGHTS
Dr. Andrea Bonnicksen and Dr. Andrew McNitt (PLS)

Selected problems in human rights, with emphasis on analysis of the ways in which governmental action at different levels affects the protection and promotion of these rights.

ELU 4022-004 THE ROMANTIC VIEW OF MANKIND IN CONTEMPORARY SOCIETY
Dr. Mark Christhilf (ENG)

An investigation into the historical development and current validity of the Romantic view of mankind. Questions as to the criminal as a victim of society, children as models for "natural" spontaneity, the influence of society on the "good" or "evil" nature of the human being, will be examined in contemporary literature.

ELU 4022-005 CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN AMERICAN EDUCATION
Dr. Harold Malehorn (ELE)

A study of the relationships among education, schooling, and problems of society. Special attention will be given to adult learning, and adult society roles after the college years.

ELU 4022-006 THE CHANGING WORLD OF WOMEN Dr. Janet Norberg (SPC)

The roles assigned to women by society often cause great dissonance to the educated woman who seeks to combine a profession with the role of wife or mother. Anxiety for the male may also be a problem. The prediction that 70% of American women will work outside the home by 1990 emphasizes the importance of this issue.
